Seismic Party Saves Logtown Man from River

Two employees of Humble Oil Co., anchored in Pearl River at Logtown aboard seismograph party 17, rescued a Logtown Negro, Frank Jones, from drowning Saturday morning, after Jones dove into the river to retrieve one of his children who had fallen in.

The rescuers were Harris Duffin of Oak Hill, and Chiles Ledet of Thibodaux.

Jones and his family had been fishing about 100 yards from the dock at Logtown when one of his children fell into the river. Jones jumped in and helped the child to safety but disappeared beneath the surface before he could reach the bank.

Duffin and Ledet, who are vacationing at Logtown, roved across the river in a skiff and located Jones back to Bay Banner's marina where they administered artificial respiration.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Aetien and Mrs. Joseph Aetien and daughter, Jo Ann, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fayard, Jr.

long proposed widening of Cess and Cess Streets to allow more parking space around the courthouse. Supervisors presented with a smaller of approval a letter from Highway Commissioner John D. Smith assuring them the highway department has no plans or intention to move Interstate 10 from where it was tentatively located by the Mississippi and Louisiana Highway Department in 1958.

The commission was in reply to a request from the board asking the department not to change the location of Interstate 10 to a more northerly route as was proposed by the people of Poydras.

Several other matters were discussed due to the absence of Charles A. Bass, Jr. Best 11 supervisor, who was graciously ill following surgery in a New Orleans hospital.

A resolution was passed to give $500 from the general fund toward a hospital to welcome the 134th Transportation Co. of the National Guard home.

A request by W. W. Weire for reduction of tax assessments on water less from $7,000 to $5,000 was deferred until Tax Assessor George Hoffmann could check similar assessments. A motion to eliminate a deal on assessment of Springwood Park was made by Charles Lovingshouse, assessor by Neodesa. Bills were read and payment was approved and a $2,000 interest loan was transferred from Best 5 to Best 1 before the group recessed for lunch at 12:30 p.m.

The afternoon meeting was devoted to a hearing of petitions from Clyde Lohman and Mrs. Pauline Neodesa on a road right of way in Lakeshore. Lohman and Mrs. Neodesa were each allowed four witnesses, Mrs. Ne-

Game Biologist Fatally Struck By Lightning

Starting Gene Clawson, Sea Game and Fish Commission biologist who resided on Carroll Avenue, was killed about 1:30 p.m. Sunday at Pascagoula by a bolt of lightning, an inquest jury at Pascagoula ruled Sunday.

The body was discovered about 10:30 a.m. Sunday, one mile west of the grain elevator at Pascagoula by R. C. Neal who was flying a private plane over the marshy area. Jackson County coroner J. Leslie Nelson said a game and fish commission pickup truck Clawson had been driving was found parked near the grain elevator. Clawson had apparently walked out into the marsh and was struck during an electrical storm Saturday afternoon.

The body was brought in by a Coast Guard helicopter. A verdict of death by accidental shock by lightning was returned after examination by a pathologist who found burns about the body where a metal ladder, belt buckle, and some had touched it.

The body was shipped Sunday night to Tampa, Fla., where Clawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Clawson reside. Clawson had been with the game and fish commission about three years and had served with the Army in Korea.

Polly At Waveland

Time to say farewell to two weeks of heavenly sleeping just as late as we desired and buckle down to work once again. . . We'll begin by adding two cents worth of welcome to returning members of the 134th Transportation Co. of the National Guard who are to be released from active duty this weekend. Don't think too many of the boys will regret saying farewell to the "land of opportunity", namely Arkansas—base to be critical, and most whom we've never visited Hot Springs, which we've been led to believe is quite lively, but after trips to Pine Bluff and Little Rock, we decided the reason the neighboring state has the "opportunity" motto on license plates, is because that's about all we noted there! Joan Bernard, Jean Arceneaux Jan Alon, Linda Fayard, Elaine Bourgeois and Dianne Karl will be among the smiling wives greeting homecoming guardsmen husbands.

Bay Side of the News

Mr. and Mrs. Rene de Montezano and daughter Larriana are enjoying a trip to Jackson and Vicksburg. The Herb Weiss are to be congratulated upon receiving the Bay-Waveland Garden of the Month award. Katie (Mrs. Sam) Compagnon braved a jet for the first time enroute to Anchorage, Alaska, and a visit with co-in-law and daughter Airman Second Class John and Fran Smith—Katie met John's parents, in their home town, Whiting, Ind., the three proceeded to Chicago where they boarded the Alabian Island plane—couldn't get too many details about the deep south as Kay was too thrilled with her first view of her seven-month-old grandson, Gary Joseph Sotak.

A very happy birthday to Frances (Mrs. Tony) Compagnon who celebrated on August 4. Frances and Tony's oldest son, Donald, has accepted a position with a candy company in the Crescent City. A very warm welcome to our area is extended to Mrs. Zaida M. Duker, formerly of California, who recently purchased a home in Leander Subdivision.

Must apologize to Eddie Virgilino's Uncle Bud—his last name should be correctly spelled Satter.

Fair Was a Roaring Success

St. Clare's annual fish fry Friday night and fair Sunday and Sunday apparently were just about the most successful ever. . . people overflowed into the parish hall and what must have been tons of fish, bottled shrimp, potato salad, olives and garlic bread, Louise and Dave Markey, co-chairmen, requested us to express their thanks to any and all who contributed to the success of the affair. Wind blew and rain fell most of Saturday evening and of difficulty for workers installing booths, wiring and the like, but skies cleared and almost perfect weather prevailed both nights of the fair. . . the new driveways and parking areas were truly a blessing as off street parking would have been impossible. Some of the workers were Mrs. Alfred Ziegler, Mrs. William Bradford, who had assistance from her attractive niece and friend from New Orleans, Eunice Pavre, Ada Edel, Sara Munch and daughter Linda, Ann and Henry Develle, Gerri and Sam Blanchard, Ruth and Max Ballatin, Althea and Sterling Balaski, Max Giamelloni, Lottie and Garfield Lader, Libby Forry, Gertrude Toomey, Louise Markey, Beatie and Jimmie DeBlanc, Laura and Red Hunter, Emelda Price, Phil and Jimmy Lagasse, Margaret and Cecile Turcotte aided and abetted by nieces Aggie Bourgeois and Charlotte Piazza and others many too numerous to mention. . . some of those spotted enjoying food and games were Mrs. Sara Macaluso Thorning, Ray Bordages, John Mond, Cas Lader, Louise and Joe Wymer with weekend guests, Louise's son and daughter-in-law, Pat and Gene Watkins and adorable daughter Renee, Jeanne and Fred Lister, Kiki and Eddie Carriere, Buck Lader, of course Father O'Brien, obviously pleased at the turnout, and umpteen others.

Mr. X, A Good Samaritan

Bunice and Louis Foret are proud owners of a lovely new boat, Elaine and B. E. Steimle joined them in a trial run Saturday. Which brings up another subject altogether — much publicity is given to criminals of all sorts, but very little mention is made of the better side of human nature. We think that a certain gentleman in Bay St. Louis is entitled to a pat on the back, although neither we or his benefactor (we know there's no such word, but can't think of one which better fits the occasion) knows his name. . . It seems that B. E. gaily masked as a very colorful lady (?) Carnival day, lost his wallet containing not only valuable papers, but also $65 in cold hard cash and was completely unaware of the loss until the above mentioned gentleman approached and asked his name. . . B. E. thinking it was just another Mardi Gras gag, replied, "Sam, what's yours?" and it took him several minutes to realize that the questioner was quite serious—when he identified himself he was handed the billfold with every cent intact. . . this good samaritan proved himself just that by refusing to take a reward for his kindness. . . so, . . whoever you happen to be Mr. X we just want to let you know that your act was greatly appreciated and it gives us sort of a warm feeling to know that there are people of integrity and honor in this day and age when the consensus seems to agree with Dagwood Bumstead's frequent contention "people are a sorry lot!"

Softball games continue to draw crowds—Barbara and Bubba White and the Redo's, Juanita and Bill, the Jerome Carvers, Polly Compagna, Franco and Tony Compagna and Elaine Colson were among Sunday night's footers. Bubble Senior, Joe Bourgeois and Alvin Bourgeois were also watching the game play—from a safe distance (across the street!).

Leslie Young and Doug Carmichael of Mobile and Carroll Clay of Duthan, Ala., return to their respective homes today. . . all attached to the Corps of Engineers, have been residing in one of George's plush new motel rooms. Incidentally anyone looking for Bea and George need only look in the novel A-frame gift shop which is now also the bar.

An Anniversary

Summer residents Jeanne and Fred Lister celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary at their Jeff Davis home Saturday. . . guests included Louise and Joe Wymer (Joe's Jeanne's brother), Pat and Gene Watkins, Lee Polittier, Mrs. D. S. Meeks of Port Arthur, Texas, Mrs. Jane Hanning, Marjorie LaVolante and Virginia Kinsore (they are Jeanne's sisters), Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Lister of Baton Rouge and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Elwood. (It isn't too often that we can get so well visited to a big, hot, sunny day and Dave Casey's son Steven will soon return home there. . . he and his wife look promising and the couple. . . we'll hope they'll stay in town from

Street Work

Don't know whether to be glad or sorry that the COMPLAINT OF THE WEEK or just extend sympathy to Mendocino Lane residents—they've suffered more than enough during the improvement of that street—we realize that the means to usually more than justified by the end—but had it not been for a very courteous truck driver and his helper (Mendocino Lane) several cars might yet be submerged in several yards of slippy, slimy red clay fill. Last Thursday a number of trucks dumped loads approximately 4 to 5 feet in height in the middle of the street—the rains came and cars slid into the ditch faster than the huge truck could remove them. . . the situation really became amusing when one clay laden dump truck returned and they too went the way of all flesh, except that it happened to be metal—fortunately the goop was distributed more or less evenly the following day. . . but automobiles still live dangerously when they proceed down the perilous lane. . .

Miss Tina Campbell celebrated her 90th birthday April 25. A native of Scotland, Miss Tina, with her parents, settled Campbell's Island, south-west of Bay St. Louis on Heron Bay, in 1873, and in 1918, Miss Tina, at the age of 46, practiced nursing in Bay St. Louis.

She now lives with her brother, R. G. Campbell, and his family, in Hattiesburg, Miss. Campbell was the topic of a recent feature article in the Hattiesburg American.

Next social event in the Jay-cette calendar will be a dessert-party Aug. 29 at the Boomerang Club.

Met Ruth Goetzleuchter's oldest granddaughter (Margie and Ed Ladin are her parents) the other day and that's one adorable blonde mopet with personality popping out all over her smiling little face—the baby was asleep, but Gladys O'Neill tell us she's just as pretty as her older sister.

Haswell Swayze and daughter Janet spent last week in Waveland—Omega, who looks just about the same age as Janet, joined them Saturday.

Cenado and Brent Colagosa were weekend visitors.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY—An almost military line of canvas tents strung across Jackson Ridge formed by a small army of camping Bay Spouts lined up attentively before their leaders—the pitiful little bands of abandoned dogs and cats scurrying for nourishment around the same area and the almost novel sound of a very few waves breaking the overall as a marvellous beautiful breeze wafted them to shore.

Once more we'll plead for a home for Abigail's three offspring—on humans go, they are sort of a scrubby looking lot, but healthy and gentle—the little fellows must go as Abigail just lost the maternal type and they're ending up out of house and home—too, they are about to permanently wrap the town cat, Rhett's personality—ho's apparently unaware of his gender and spends all of his time mothering the kittens as Abigail watches the process with a bored expression on her puss. . . Just about how

Fight Looms for 2nd Spot

Realty Ends at Top, Traps Upset Reinike

Southern Realty clinched the first-place regular season Bay Softball championship Monday night with an easy 10-1 victory over the Bay KC's, eliminating the KC's from any playoff hopes. Traps' Knack-Knock scored an upset 9-6 win over Reinike's Dirt Diggers in the opener of the night's two-bill, giving both the Traps and Industrial Electric a chance to tie the Dirt Diggers for second place.

Southern Realty became the first team to hold their opponents to only one run against the KC's, getting good balanced hitting from several players. The league champs scored two times in the top of the first and never trailed. Cecil Lader and W. J. Cameron paced Southern Realty with 2-3 at the plate. Cameron also contributed a sacrifice.

Don Caldwell was the winning pitcher, going the distance. Tux Mont was charged with the loss. Traps upset Reinike in high action, leading from the start. The Traps made six errors, but none were costly and they came up with the big plays when they needed them. Outfielders Louis Jacobi and Herman Yarbrough made perfect throws to the plate to nab two baserunners in the fifth inning, and catcher Sheet Statin tagged both men out.

Traps rapped 16 hits with almost everybody contributing to the attack. Johnny McDonald led Reinike's with 3-4, Claude Yarbrough was the winning pitcher and Billy Osborne the loser.

Friday night in the first of two games, Southern Realty rode good pitching by Cecil Lader to an 11-3 win over Kiln Youth Center. Don Caldwell and J. T. Lader both were 3-3 with the stick, and Kiln errors didn't hurt Southern Realty. Alton Lader was the losing moundman.

Traps jolted the KC's play-off hopes with a 9-4 win over the Knights in Friday's finale. Traps trailed 3-1 until the fifth, but broke the game apart in the final three frames, winding up with 15 hits. Claude Yarbrough was the winning pitcher, and Tux Mont the loser.

Wednesday night's doubleheader was postponed because of rain. The regular season is scheduled to end tomorrow night, unless last night's game met with poor weather. Southern Realty and Traps will play in the first game tomorrow with the KC's and Industrial Electric to play to the nightcap.

Southern Realty, through Monday's games, boasts an 11-2 record with one game to play. Reinike has finished their season with a 10-4 mark, and Industrial Electric and greatly improved Traps are both 8-4. Playoffs will probably begin Monday night, unless playoffs are needed to decide which teams will play in the semifinal and final playoffs, according to Teddy Morel, official league scorekeeper.

Youth Center exploded for four runs in the first inning and then topped several Sea Coast Echo rallies Tuesday night to down the Scoops 6-2 and run their winning streak to 16 games after a defeat in the season's first game.

Youth Center broke on top early in the game when Gary Noto slammed a bases-loaded home run in the first inning. However, starting Youth Center pitcher Danny Krankey had to work out of jams in the first two innings, and when the Scoops loaded the bases in the third, Noto was called in from center-field to do the mound chores. Noto walked Ronnie Lafontaine with the sacks loaded but then registered two strikeouts to put out the fire.

Two more runs came across in the third for Youth Center on base-to-base singles by Larry Jacobi and Danny Krankey, and two errors. After loading the bases, though, a fast double play ended further damage. Youth Center erased a Scoop threat in the fourth and final inning with another twin-killing.

Krankey and Noto shared the pitching duties for the winners, and Chuck Wagner was charged with the loss.

7-Up won a 6-3 victory over Industrial Electric Monday afternoon in Little League play. Scoring in every inning, 7-Up was led at the plate by Perry Stephens with two singles. Jackie Strong stroked a double, and C. L. Yarbrough, Shawn Favre, and Steve Davis all collected a single. S. Shiyu and M. Barnett had hits for Industrial, with Barnett's a three-base blow. Richard Holeman and Anthony Lader pitched for the winners and Shiyu for the losers.

Tomorrow in the Little League, Coast Electric and Gulf Coast Express play in a game which might help decide the league's fourth playoff spot although there is still a long way to go. Tomorrow's opener pits Cue Oil and Industrial Electric. Little League doubleheaders will also be staged Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week.

Fairhope Sailor Wins Adams Race
Fairhope Yacht Club's Sally Murray won the Adams Cup GYA quarterfinals at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, finishing first in both of Saturday's races and coming in second in Sunday's final event.

Milly Logan of Pass Christian scored a first and two seconds to finish in second place, while Gulfport's Carolyn Hatten wound up third.

Bay-Waveland Commodore K. W. Peppard noted that the final race was sailed in Sunday's bad squally weather and that the Gulfport boat had to be towed in. The winner now advances to the national semifinals this week.

NAMED PHONE HEAD
Jerry Simmons has been appointed manager for Southern Bell in Biloxi, according to F. J. Lamb, district manager. Simmons succeeds T. H. Bailey who has been named district manager in Tupelo.

Little, Pony Group Tourney Is Sunday

Bay St. Louis's annual combination Little League-Pony League tournament unfolds Sunday at 8:30 a.m. with all 12 local teams participating.

Ten games will be played, three in the Pony League division and seven in Little League play, with finals slated for 4:30 and 5:30 p.m. according to tournament chairman Neilus Favre.

Gulf Coast Express and Merchant's Bank will open the event at 8:30 in a Little League contest. Cue Oil and Ken's Little Diggers will follow at 9:30, and winners of those two games will meet at 2:30 in the upper bracket semifinal. The Junior Sheriffs and Coast Electric will play at 11:30 a.m., and Industrial Electric and 7-Up at 12:30 p.m., with those winners to battle at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. Little League finals will be staged at 5:30.

Youth Center and Summy Signs will open the Pony League class at 10:30, and Fahey Drug and the Sea Coast Echo Scoops meet at 1:30. The two winning clubs will play at 4:30 for the championship.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners and runners-up in both divisions following the Little League final game. All games will be regulation five innings with a one-hour time limit.

Two concession stands will be open during the time the tournament is going on. Hot dogs, hamburgers, cold drinks, peanuts, and other food will be available. All proceeds from the event will go to the banquet fund of the two leagues.

Jo Texer Sets Bowling Record

New Orleans' Jo Texer, niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Doussan of Bay St. Louis, averaged 184.16 in the final round of the Bowling Proprietors Assn. of America National Junior Championships in Washington, D. C., setting a record, but she finished second because of her handicap. Winner was Sandra Kosue of Hawaii.

Miss Texer, frequent here, bowled 198-188-207-172-175-165 in the final round. In first round competition, where she also finished second, she bowled a 236 game. The top eight finishers in the first round advanced to the finals. She received a $1,000 scholarship for her career.

Playoff Time Approaching

Softball League playoffs will begin sometime next week, according to league officials. Next Monday will probably be the date of the first game.

The playoffs will be a two-out-of-five series. The winners of the semifinals will advance to the championship.

The regular season will be run in the same way as in 1961. The top four teams will qualify for the playoffs.

At the same time, it appears that Reimke and Lumsden will also be playing two-out-of-five for the championship.

The playoffs should start next week, also. The regular season will be run in the same way as in 1961.

At the same time, it appears that Reimke and Lumsden will also be playing two-out-of-five for the championship.

With the Younger Set

Playoffs in the Little League are scheduled to begin Aug. 24, but the regular season will have to be made up, including six games from last week. The playoffs will be in the same manner as the men's softball affair, except the finals will be two-out-of-five.

Karl's Little Diggers, 7-Up, and the Junior Sheriffs appear to be the favorites in the playoffs unless they hit a snag, which, with still only eight games to go, could easily happen. Coast Electric is the inside single on the fourth spot while Industrial Electric and Gulf Coast Express maintain slim hopes.

The Pony League isn't scheduled to close until Aug. 25, and with only three games to go, the playoffs will almost certainly run into school. Youth Center has won 15 games in a row and is the only other team playing close to 500 ball.

Signs and the Echo Scoops are improving, though, along with the other half of Youth Center's wins have been by only one run, indicating that in a short playoff, the league leaders would have a good chance to win.

The girls' softball league for ages 10-14 seemed to be just getting started when all of our recent rain hit. They haven't been able to get in a game in almost three weeks. There are three teams in the league, and most of the games played have been close and interesting.

The girls are scheduled to play at 6:30 p.m. on Thursdays and Sundays.

Inflicting the Jinx

Both the National and American League pennant races are beginning to take shape, and since we don't like either the New York Yankees or the Los Angeles Dodgers, we'll jinx their title hopes by wishing them to lose.

The Dodgers are finally playing ball like they've been supposed to for the past three seasons. Good pitching by lefties Johnny Podres and Sandy Koufax and right-handed Don Drysdale, along with timely hitting by the Davis boys, Tommy and Willie, and Frank Howard, have been the chief reasons for the L. A. success.

Drysdale has won 20 ball games already, and barring injury should get at least 30 more starts before the end of the season, giving him a chance to become the first 30-game winner in the majors since Dizzy Dean turned the trick in the 1930's. The tall, handsome right-handed pitcher who wrote an article for a leading national sports magazine, "You've Got To Be Mean To Pitch," has stopped knocking out batters and started striking them out, and must rank as one of baseball's best pitchers.

Howard, figured to be a super-star before he ever swung a bat for L.A., is at last developing into a good player. His clutch hitting has won several games for the Dodgers, and he now must rank as a challenger for the league's Most Valuable Player award along with Drysdale and Tommy Davis, a handyman who can play the infield and the outfield, and this season is leading the league by a landslide in runs batted in.

With Koufax presently out of action due to an injured pitching arm, the Dodgers have a long way to go before clinching the flag. Two good starting pitchers seldom are enough down the stretch, especially when your nearest rivals have three or four. St. Francisco, in second place, had better move quick, however, or it will be too late.

The American League is hard to report on. One day, the Yankees look almost invincible, and then suddenly they lost three in a row and the Minnesota Twins and those amazing Los Angeles Angels are right back in the thick of things. Cleveland, league leader for much of the first half of the season, has faded way back into the pack and is out of it. If Mickey Mantle gets back into action, the Yankees should win. If not, the Twins or the Angels might have just enough room.

Side Bars

Jimmy Smith, Jr. and Andy Hillery, fighting off the train tressle, had some good fortune last week. They nabbed a 5 1/2 pound red fish and 14 large speckled trout, some weighing as much as 3 1/2 pounds.

Sports stars of the week: Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, Mexican tennis stars, downed the American Davis Cup team 3-2 over the weekend, eliminating the Americans for the first time in many years in their own zone; Bob Gossby, playing right now close to the best golf on the professional tour, won the Insurance City Open crown, defeating Art Wall, Jr., on the seventh hole of their sudden death playoff Sunday after the two wound up the scheduled 72-holes in a deadlock. First prize was $3,300; Bart Starr, Green Bay quarterback, led his Packers to a 42-20 Friday win over the college all-stars, firing five touchdown passes.

The American League is hard to report on. One day, the Yankees look almost invincible, and then suddenly they lost three in a row and the Minnesota Twins and those amazing Los Angeles Angels are right back in the thick of things. Cleveland, league leader for much of the first half of the season, has faded way back into the pack and is out of it. If Mickey Mantle gets back into action, the Yankees should win. If not, the Twins or the Angels might have just enough room.

Tiger, Hawk Grid Hopefuls To Train

High school football is here! At least for the boys who'll be trying out for two of the three area varsity teams. Bay High begins grid practice Wednesday, according to Superintendent J. D. McCallough, and North Central, Superintendent J. D. Penman states, will also start on the 13.

Bay High head coach Lance Lumpkin is expecting a good turnout of both lettermen and first-year boys when the Tigers report Monday and Tuesday for looking of equipment. The Tigers, who in three years in the Gulf Coast Conference have never finished lower than second, will work out once a day late in the afternoon, beginning Wednesday.

North Central will give out grid equipment Tuesday before getting down to once-a-day workouts Wednesday. The Hawks, a member of the Gulf Coast Conference, haven't won a game in three years but should be improved over last season.

St. Stanislaus football hopefuls will not report until Tuesday, Aug. 28, but will make up for lost time with twice-a-day workouts. The Rockchaws will play five Louisiana teams and two Mississippi Big Right squads, this season according to Brother Hugh, president.

North Central and St. Stanislaus both are sporting new looks on their coaching staffs. The Hawk grid eleven will be directed by Ezell Lea, Hancock County native who has been coaching in Louisiana, and Lea's biggest problem right now seems to be that he might not be able to play any home games, a difficulty which has haunted the Hawks for three years. If a proper lighting agreement can be worked out, North Central will play contests at home and school officials are working toward such a solution.

Billy Murphy is the new Rockchaw head coach. He was graduated from Livingston (Ala.) State Teacher's College after attending Spring Hill College in Mobile on a football scholarship. He was graduated from McGill High School in Mobile with athletic honors. Assisting Murphy will be Mike Gallagher, a graduate of Spring Hill after going to Notre Dame University for a year and making the frosh football team there. Gallagher attended high school in Illinois. Buddy Pitale remains on the Rockchaw staff as assistant and junior varsity football coach.

Teen Times

As the last vacation month finally seemed to be local teenagers appear to be busy planning for school's reopening, when they aren't searching for air-conditioning or swimming pools to beat the heat. College bound kids and leeches are planning wardrobes while 15 recent St. Joseph graduates have already received vestments to be worn upon entering the convent Sept. 7. Two members of the Jacob family will go into religion next month. Margo to St. Joseph's in New Orleans and younger brother Larry enters the seminary.

Another SJA grad, Ann Proctor of Clermont Harbor, took her civil service test at Keeler Field last week.

Ann Clark, who with sisters Kappy and Susan and Valda Piccaini returned from a New York City and Washington trip last week, was most impressed with the musical My Fair Lady, Annapolis, where they visited Bob Hamilton and the high cost of food, just about in that order.

Ellen Allison, looking quite sharp in her WAVE uniform, spent her first leave with her parents—she reported to the Naval Hospital at Portsmouth, Va., for on the job training Aug. 4.

Buddy Saux hosted a swimming party honoring pretty Carol Falgout of New Orleans, who is spending two weeks with cousins Gerri and Sam Blanchard, at his parent's home Saturday night. Betty Jean Albert also gave a party at her parents summer home, last week. Bob Edenfield was among the guests.

Warren Traub is building up muscles working for the city—guess he's preparing for entrance to Annapolis next year. Congratulations incidentally, Warren, upon your acceptance to the Naval Academy.

Happy birthday Mike Lorrux—he was 16 Aug. 3.

Summer band classes are now underway at Bay High under the instruction of Professor Marcel La Nasa.

Betty Younger and members of the Lazy Y Rebel Riders will present their second rodeo at the arena Aug. 17-18.

Betty Ruhl will be maid of honor when Brenda Brechtel, graduate of Waveland School and St. Joseph Academy, weds James Ridenour at Our Lady of the Gulf next Saturday.

Caroline Damiani, captain of Mollere's Realty softball team, presented a cake to the Waveland Little Leaguers as consolation prize in the recent tournament sponsored by the young people of Waveland Baptist Church.

Buddie Wilson, who has a vacation job with Tennessee Gas Co., is the proud owner of a 'new' car.

Jeanne Lagasse who attended La., last year will return to St. Joseph Academy next month.

CHURCH FAIR PROFITS

Approximately $5,800 was grossed at St. Clare's annual church fair Aug. 4-5, general chairman James Lagasse reported. Winners of the three awards, a lot, television set and four tires were Mrs. Frank Wayne, formerly of Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Charles Solgnot of New Orleans and Miss Mary Wrenstead of Waveland.

PICNIC FOR RETARDED
Hancock Retarded Children's Assn. will sponsor a picnic Monday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Joseph Chintche on the Old Spanish Trail. Mesdames U. N. Durbin, Warren Carver and Chintche are co-chairmen.

MODEL PLANE WINNERS — Rufus Hill and Nancy Davis display trophies they won for first place in their respective divisions of model airplane contest sponsored by TG and Y store here.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Basil W. Hazlett, a son, Barry Wayne, weight seven lbs., 12 ozs., born July 26, at Ochsner Foundation Hospital, New Orleans. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hazlett of Clermont Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Craft, Jr., a daughter, Natalie Renee, weight, eight lbs., two and one half ozs., born July 29, at Crosby Memorial Hospital, Piquette, Mrs. Craft is the former Jacquelyn Branson.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Maren, a son, Olin Gena, born July 31, at Hancock General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Herron, Jr., a son, John Robert III, weight six lbs., one oz., born Aug. 3, at Hancock General Hospital.

SEMINARY GRADUATE — Jack Roger Smith, pastor of First Baptist Church of Waveland, received the bachelor of divinity degree at summer commencement exercises of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

Davis, Hill Capture Model Prizes

Nancy Davis and Rufus Hill, local winners in the TG and Y model airplane contest, are being judged on a district level in Baton Rouge this week.

Hill won the senior division, with Kara Merritt of Kila second and Dick Sawyer of Waveland third while Nancy won junior honors followed by Joey Monti and Steven Bunker. Trophies went to the three top places along with merchandise of $2, $1 and 50 cents.

Christ School Adds Nursery To Program

The pre-school department of Christ Episcopal Day School will be expanded this fall to include both nursery and kindergarten classes. Rev. Charles R. Johnson, headmaster announced this week.

The department will be under the direction of Mrs. L. R. Stehling, who has served Christ Episcopal for a number of years as Kindergarten teacher. Assisting her will be Mrs. H. A. Torgesen who will teach nursery classes. The new nursery division will be open to children four years of age, or those who will be four prior to Dec. 31, 1962. Registrations are now open and additional information may be obtained by calling the school.

A few vacancies are available in other classes. Mr. Johnson added, however, parents wishing to enroll their children should do so without delay, for all classes are limited to a 25-student enrollment. The session opens Sept. 4.

READY THEN READY NOW!

This is the "Wall of Shame." With tons of concrete and reels of barbed wire, the Communists again attempted to push back the frontiers of freedom in the summer of 1961. But once again, free men willingly left home, family and job to answer the challenge... and answer it they did! We are proud to pay tribute to the citizen-soldiers of the National Guard whose readiness status enabled us to meet this critical situation head-on — successfully.
